

WORKSHOP & TRADITIONAL GREEK LUNCH

WRITE YOUR LIFE

So you want to write about your life, but you're not sure where to start? Maybe you have a few ideas, a bunch of notes, or perhaps even a few chapters? Now is the time to get the skills under your belt to finally write that memoir or life writing piece.

This one-day intensive workshop will include practical writing exercises to release memories and get words on the page.

Accompanied by a traditional Greek wood-fired lunch, the day promises to be delicious.

About the author

Spiri Tsintziras is the author of two memoirs, My Ikaria (2018) and Afternoons in Ithaka (2014). Her articles and life stories have been published widely in anthologies, newspapers and magazines. She teaches creative writing at Swinburne University and regularly runs workshops at Writers Victoria.

'I absolutely got a lot out of it and am feeling motivated to get back into the projects I had started.' Nicole M, former participant.

OVERCOME HURDLES TO WRITING LIFE STORIES

PROMPT MEMORY

IDENTIFY YOUR LIFE
THEMES

ORGANISE IDEAS AND RESEARCH

SUNDAY 24 FEB
2019 - BOX HILL,
VICTORIA
10AM-4PM

COST $200
(INCLUDES LUNCH AND REFRESHMENTS)

For more information email Spiri Tsintziras at writingspirit@bigpond.com

www.tribaltomato.com